Dear Village Residents

As we all move forward in these uncertain times, the Village Council has deemed the following be necessary until further notice:

`All Village employees will not enter homes unless an emergency requires it. We will continue to work to maintaining essential services

`Building permits and other documents may be emailed

`The Village office is closed to the public.

The voice mail will continue to be monitored

Water will not be shut off for non-payment through THE STATE OF EMERGENCY.

`The Community Center is closed to all public gatherings.

Freeport Library CLOSED

**The Library will be closed

Due to COVID-19.

Help Needed?

May 2020

The Library is closed until further notice due to COVID19
Stay Safe at Home!

We will reopen when Governor Whitmer gives the all clear.
Adult Winter Reading Program

Keep reading anything you have, you still have time to earn your prize. When we reopen, we will catch up with all of you who finished over the quarantine! Prizes are local honey and maple syrup, and we still have some library mugs and canvas bags!

Signing up for a Library Card to Use Downloadables:
If you don't have a Freeport Library card and live in Carlton or Irving township (includes the Village of Freeport), Email fretlb@llcoop.org for a temporary card that you may use to download ebooks and eaudiobooks. If you have an active Freeport card, but don't know how to use the downloadables, we will be glad to help you too!

We are looking forward to seeing you soon!
